

Article 19.08: Seller Withholding IDX Listing from Display

Last Updated: September 27, 2026

A Member Participant who lists a property for a seller who has elected not to have the property listing or the property address displayed on the Internet or other electronic forms of display or distribution shall cause the seller to execute a document that includes such a provision, in accordance with their applicable MLS Governing Documents.

(Updated 11/2020)