

Article 19.22: Identifying the Listing Brokerage

Last Updated: September 27, 2026

With the display of any IDX listings, all listings displayed pursuant to IDX shall identify the listing brokerage name, the listing number, and the status of the listing immediately adjacent to the property information. When displaying a sold listing, the name of the cooperating brokerage OR the following disclaimer must also appear: "Properties displayed may be listed or sold by various participants in the MLS"; as established by the applicable MLS Governing Documents.

With the display of IDX Listings from Northwest MLS, all listings displayed pursuant to IDX shall identify the listing brokerage name, the listing number, and the status of the listing immediately adjacent to the primary photo or group of prominent photos.

Required items must be displayed in a readily visible color and typeface not smaller than the median used in the display of listing data. For example, no tiny text or gray text displayed on a gray background. Displays of minimal information (e.g., "thumbnails, text messages, "tweets", etc. of two hundred (200) characters or less) are exempt from this requirement but only when linked directly to a display that includes all required disclosures. For audio delivery of listing content, all required disclosures must be subsequently delivered electronically to the registered consumer performing the property search or linked to through the device's application.
